Wankband: Endless Possibilities!

The steps forward that sex industry is making these days don't fail to shock me. Literally, in this case. PornHub is exploring the possibility of a new renewable energy resource: Wank energy. By including in a wristband a kinetic charger, part of the energy used to jerk off is jerked in, stored in a battery which can then be used as a backup for many electronic appliances, like cellphones, or even other sex toys. So, you don't need to worry anymore about watching porn on your phone, or playing with your favorite rechargeable vibrator, wasting the battery! Brilliant!

But let's not just stop at wanking... Can it be tied to a dildo? A strap-on? Probably only wrist-sized ones (unless you chain several together into a belt), but that's okay... Need more energy, call for an orgy! Let's build a Wankplant! These are the great ideas that change the world for the better! They even have a rewards program for highly productive wankers, although I wonder what Fitbit style statistics reports we'll get to see. Sign up to be a be(a)ta tester and find out.

Ricky's Back Yard Zine: Floidoip!

I had the pleasure of getting to review Ricky's Back Yard's Floidoip issue, and from the moment you see the cover art featuring a black and white Dr. Frankenfurter, it is apparent this is going to be something very different from the usual fare. This issue is a fantastic anthology of LGBTQ poetry, prose and art, the proceeds of which goes to support the Trevor Project in saving queer lives and preventing suicide. I wasn't sure what I was to expect when picking up this issue to review, and I have to say I was captivated by every page.

The writing within these pages exudes a very punk sense of sexuality and gender. Stories of sex, acceptance, denial, love, loss, addiction and lust grace these pages and they are funny, sad, sometimes violent... but always with an almost brutal sincerity underlying them. There is also some lovely art and fantastic poetry in this book as well, all keeping within the theme. I would highly recommend giving this lovely piece of queer artistry a read and treating yourself to these beautiful pieces of written and drawn art while supporting a good cause!

MV Mag Issue 14: Dayglow Desire

The ManyVids clip site does a magazine to highlight some of their clip artists. This issue kicks off with a fun rave-inspired shoot with Ginger Banks who talks about getting ahead by being nice and how hot she found camming from the library, along with the inside skinny on her first boy/girl cam show being interrupted by the doorbell. AltPorn.Net readers will be excited to see there is a double feature on AltPorn Awards Fan Favorite Performer of the Year and Gonzo Director Leigh Raven and AltPorn Awards nominee Riley Nixon, shot by AltPorn Awards winner Nikki Hearts. Riley and Leigh look unbelievably punk rock sexy elegant amazing in this shoot. You can really feel how much they enjoy each other and are wholly themselves with Nikki behind the lens. Both bald beauties are interviewed. I especially liked Leigh's comments on it being part of the process of success to sometimes make a fool of yourself and Riley's thoughts on letting infinite kindness flow through you and exploring. This kind of collaboration is what alt is all about. Bonus points for the mini feature on Cattie Candescent and the introduction to Macy Kennedy with her adorable 420 glitter big boots and fishnets style.

Sexy BarelyEvil Magazine: Issue #2

The masterminds we all know and love, Amelia G and Forrest Black, just got out the second edition of the BlueBlood's BarelyEvil magazine, and it is a feast!

The cover features the amazing Scarlet Starr, and you can find an interesting interview and a sexy schoolgirl photo shoot with her inside the magazine. The thing I like the most about this issue is the fact that they also have music reviews of Marilyn Manson and KMFDM, because after all, I think we all got into alternative with music, and it is a sweet reminder on how the alternative is a lifestyle, not just fashion and beauty. But speaking of beauty, you have to check out the feature for Junker Designs and brighten up your day with an article about the everjoyful UltraHappy. I especially enjoyed Danni Shinya's feature, her art is beyond beautiful and so inspiring, and PS: Amelia G rocks fiction writing as well.

Featuring many beauties, fashion, toys, music for the dark souls and more, BarelyEvil is surely a magazine every alternative lover should have.

Darkside Magazine Issue 10

The tenth issue of the brilliantly erotic Darkside Magazine is now available for you to live out your darkest and sexiest fantasies with, and this particular installment stays true to its release number, because with all the kinky surprises that you can find inside its pages, it truly is a perfect 10.

The cover for this issue is none other than the powerful and obedience-commanding Mistress Dometria, whose pose and gaze communicate a level of lust that you can't resist and that drives you to find out the secrets awaiting within the magazine's pages while the anticipation builds up for where she talks more about her experience on being a pro-domme. You'll notice how high-quality this project is, from the sexy photoset by PKK Photography with the sexy Jodie and her captivating outfits, to the steamy short stories that keep you warm on those cold, rainy nights while you fantasize about the kinky anecdotes enhanced by erotic images that spark your imagination.

The friendly and sincere tone of each piece of writing is so engaging that it helps you easily get immersed in each story and feature, and with all the erotic imagery present to accompany each section, your eyes will be delighted while they are guided by all the erotic content found here, which includes advice columns, suggestions on naughty clothes and accessories you can get for yourself, some kinky devices for you to enjoy on your own fantasy sessions, cautionary tales, and articles that explore various aspects of the BDSM scene

SexyFandom's New Mag Bazowie!

If you're a nerd who fancies alternative erotica, you're probably familiar with SexyFandom.com, and if not, this is the best opportunity to dive into their geek nirvana. SexyFandom is celebrating 13 years of activity and they just published the first edition of their magazine, entitled "Bazowie!" and it's pretty much all you need to read if you're into gaming, cosplay, sci-fi, fantasy. But there's more! They also cover a wide variety of alternative porn, fashion, books, and toys. One of the best features of their first edition is Masumi Max's amazing Game of Thrones cosplay, and you'll most definitely want it in your collection. They also reviewed Vaughn Belak's book, which has been inspiring and empowering for the whole alternative community. The interview with the gorgeous WingID_Lust features a photo shoot with her cosplaying Corpse Bride, and this is just one of the many reasons this magazine is awesome.

When a magazine gets me all the info my inner nerd requires, from movies and TV to con calendars, books and interviews with my favorite cosplayers and models, I'm totally in, and I'll be collecting Bazowie just as I collect my comic books: religiously!

SquarePeg Toys - Peg Away Putty

SquarePeg Toys is one of the unsung innovators of the silicone sex toy marketplace. They do have an enthusiastic audience, but I don't think they get as much spotlight as they deserve given the trends they have set with their inventive approach to safe and adventurous pleasure products.

So, I was thrilled to see their latest and maybe even greatest new creation. They call it Peg Away Putty and what it does is bringing new possibilities to all your favorite body safe silicone toys.

Peg Away Putty can be molded to any silicone toy to create pleasurable new shapes, bumps, ridges, decorative spots, and more! It's like silly putty, but cures as flexible soft Platinum silicone which adheres really well. Is your favorite plug just not quite wide enough at the base? Just add a little girth. Do you want a little extra bump for your G-spot? Mix it up and stick it on there. It's that easy!

You can order colors and mix your own to get the exact shades you love. They even have a bunch of instructional videos.

Funkit Toys - NoFrillDo Collection

I've been following Kenton and his creative Funkit Toys company for a while now because I really enjoy his conscientiously playful approach to sexual accessories. Known for their beautifully crafted clear silicone toys, accented with vibrant swirls of internal ribbons of colors, reminiscent of old school collectible cat's eye marbles, Kenton realized that although their products were very reasonably priced, given their quality, they - as most Platinum Silicone toys can be - are still a bit expensive and maybe even out of reach for the health minded budget conscious sexual explorer. So, Kenton crowd funded a bright and happy solution!

The NoFrillDo collection consists of three unique designs of non-labor intensive basic dildos, still created with the high quality platinum silicone material used in much pricier options. They are around 6.75 inches, (insertable) by 1.25ish inches thick and they go for between $20 to $24 each, depending on how specific you want to get in color and model, which is a LOT less than we're used to seeing in the stores. Plus, they are just so cute. Collect them all!

text by Skyler Slash, photos by Camilo Herrera, MPao, Derek Anthony and Brian Erzen

The 2018 AltPorn Awards, presented by MyFreeCams, returned to Bar Sinister in Hollywood for this year's festivities, and we took everything about last year's exciting event and turned it up to 11! Thank you so much to all our great sponsors, particularly our Presenting Sponsor MyFreeCams, for making it all possible.

The AltPorn Awards' swag bags are widely regarded as the best of an adult awards show and this time they were even more packed full of fun than last year! From Presenting Sponsor MyFreeCams, VIP attendees received MyFreeCams goodies including MFC themed halter and panty sets, crop tops, MyFreeCams full size cordless magic wands, mini keychain vibrators, MyFreeCams lipstick, MyFreeCams lip balm, MyFreeCams sunglasses, and MFC cell phone ring lights for camming on the go or just taking nice selfies. From Platinum Sponsor BlueBlood, VIP attendees received an issue of their award-winning Barely Evil magazine with award-winning performer Daizy Cooper on the cover and award-winning performer Penny Poison with photography by award-winning photographers Amelia G and Forrest Black. From Gold Sponsor BurningAngel and Doom's Whiskey, VIP attendees received the DVD's Gothic Anal Whores and Joanna Angel + Small Hands Fuck Young Whores on Vacation, both directed by award-winning director Joanna Angel and featuring award-winning performers Small Hands, Charlotte Sartre, Marley Brinx, and Leigh Raven. While VIP attendees enjoyed our open bar, fan attendees got the opportunity to try premium Doom's

Whiskey as well, which launched for Bar Sinister at the AltPorn Awards. Mr Hankey's Toys provided cute piggy banks for VIP attendees to start a "dildo savings fund." Bad Dragon provided Teeny Weenies miniature silicone toys, bullet vibes, and their unique cum lube. Other swag bag goodies included paddles and condoms from The Pleasure Chest, cake-shaped USB drives of splashing alt girls from award-winning photographer MessyHot, rabbit vibrators from Doc Johnson, punk buttons from award-winning model Malice McMunn's Malicious Creatures, and so much lube and so many stickers and so much more!

Plus we organized copies of the current issue of AltStar magazine in every VIP goodie bag and also for the 700+ fan attendees.

Of course, we spent days leading up to the event making sure everything was in those goodie bags just right (a lot of work!) and setting up all the signage and red carpet. We got to Bar Sinister a few hours before the event to put all the finishing touches on the venue and put on one hell of a show. We set up the stage, set up the awards to be given out, and did the run-through with our returning MC for the evening Jeffrey Damnit, making sure he got his special custom mic set up. Trophy Goddess Malice McMunn was back this

When Blue Blood told us they were publishing a coffee table art book of the history of Bar Sinister, they sent some photos over, and we were struck by photographer Whiskey Shotz' images of the beauties who dance on the cubes at this venerable Hollywood hotspot and just had to interview him about his work.

Your photos of Bar Sinister capture such nightlife excitement. Were you involved in that scene before you started photographing it?

I've pretty much been in the scene since I moved out to LA and have worked as club promoter for several different clubs. After many nights of beautiful music and dancing, I quickly made many longtime friendships, and learned that I love connecting with people through photography.

How did you get involved shooting for Bar Sinister? Any especially memorable moments from the experience?

As a musician myself I got into photography shooting bands, and after several times shooting friends' bands at Bar Sinister, I got asked to shoot regularly by recommendation once their regular photographer stepped down back in December. Some of my favorite moments are my friends' birthday nights there because a lot of my other friends that don't usually come out will show up and party with us!

What events have you photographed besides Bar Sinister?

In addition to Bar Sinister I have also photographed club nights for LADEAD, La Jardin, Batcave, Sex Cells, Endless Night Vampire Ball, and most recently Bondage Ball. I also shoot a lot of bands around the LA area, many indie bands and have shot some more well-known ones in our scene like IAMX and Zola Jesus.

WHISKEYSHOTZ PHOTOGRAPHY

interview by Kitty Two

Do you like to go clubbing when you are not shooting?

I do! I love the people, the music, and slithering through the dark with a delicious beverage in hand. Also when I don't have my camera strapped to me, it's much easier to dance and go crazy.

What was it like photographing Riae and Jade and so many other beautiful dancers? Any other favorite people you have photographed you would like to shoutout?

It is always such a pleasure to working with these girls. They're so much fun and put their all into their work. When I am lucky and our schedules align, I am lucky enough to get to photoshoot with some people outside of the club too. A shoutout to Alannah Rose! Though she is not one of the dancers, I met her at Sinister a while back and got to shoot some of my favorite photos with her. Also shoutout to my wife Crystal who has been supportive through all my late nights out and endless hours editing photos.

I love that you post on Instagram pretty much daily. Do you find your models shooting at clubs like Bar Sinister?

The goth club scene is a great place to meet beautiful and interesting people with creative ideas that really translate well to photography. Many of which I have met at clubs like Bar Sinister and some simply through social media. At the moment my main platform for photography is Instagram, which although is becoming more strict on content these days, it still seems the best way to reach out to thousands of people at a time. I may explore some other outlets for my photography as well where I can be less limited and censored than Instagram allows. Also follow some of my model friends [and] you will find more of my photo work not suitable for most social media... Skinbyrd_ and GhouKnownAsSanguine just to name a couple.

Any tips for aspiring nightlife photographers for how to get gigs, how to put people at ease, or equipment recommendations?

For getting gigs you'll want to go out to lots of events and get to know people. Helping people be relaxed and comfortable with you is the best way to get natural looking photos. Keep things light and casual, make them laugh, communicate, and try to adjust your camera settings quickly so you're not making them wait in a pose for too long. If you do well the people you are shooting for the first time may want to shoot with you again in the future. There are a ton of posed portrait nightlife photos that I do, which is a large part of the gig, but my favorites are ones that show movement and energy with vibrant colors, and sometimes you can capture beautiful moments with candid shots when it's allowable.

Riae

A woman with vibrant blue hair, a septum piercing, and numerous tattoos is posing in a club. She is wearing a black mesh bikini top and fishnet stockings, with a black harness and a chain around her waist. Her tattoos include a large rainbow and clouds on her right arm, a large tentacle design on her back, and various other colorful designs. She is leaning against a metal railing, and the background is filled with blurred figures and colorful club lights.

I am a sucker for blue hair, inky porcelain flesh, and a lush bust, and Riae is an incredibly beautiful example of the flavor. With two million followers on Instagram, she somehow gets away with showing her sexy pierced nipples, perhaps because their mods are so transfixed by everything about her, from her pierced septum to her split tongue to the inked tentacles curving over her perfect ass to the tattooed nails in her heart. She has graced many magazine covers, including Inked, Digital Camera, and Skin & Ink.

I love that she owns who she is, having pulled her model name from her actual first name Ria and her actual middle initial E.

DAIZY COOPER

interview by Skyler Slash

Daizy Cooper is a stunningly beautiful model who has taken both the mainstream and alternative erotic worlds by storm over the past year. We were first introduced to her, quite literally, at last year's AltPorn Awards, when she showed up as Ultra Happy's date and captured everyone's attention on our red carpet. And what a year it has been! One year later and she was back at the AltPorn Awards as, not only a nominee, but the winner of the award for Best Gothic Shoot!

We caught up with her after the show to get to know her a little better, and find out more about the journey that brought her here.

I've followed Catjira for a while now, and her career as a cam model and content creator has been taking off like a rocket, and how could it not – this babe belongs among the stars! Today, we're doing this interview to see what Catjira is like behind the scenes, what we can expect from her and what her greatest moments have been so far.

Arya Rae

text by Goltar

What makes a beautiful woman like Arya Fae so stunningly gorgeous? Is it the proportion of the body? The way she moves? The way she looks at the camera? It's a bit of everything, and yet nothing definite, like that perfect mix of spices where you just can't say which one is making everything taste so delicious.

Arya used to enthrall us with her blonde hair and splendid elven attitude; with a fair crown she looked ephemeral and distant, like a being from another dimension (but with very earthly cravings!) A simple change of hair dye, and she doesn't look anymore as a member of the fair court, but rather a mischievous, lusty dark elf of the court of darkness. While her former light could draw you like a moth, her new looks call for a base rush of physical desire, desperately pulling towards a pit of debauchery.

In about two years of career, Arya has already explored many different genres of porn, and she doesn't seem inclined to quit. Starting off with FTVGirls, she has worked her way through most of the standard big production companies, and done more stylized work for brands like PureTaboo, BareMaidens, and of course BurningAngel. She goes from soft core simple nudes, to exuberant anal movies.

DOLL PARTS

interview by Arctic Phoenix photos by Amelia G and Forrest Black

Camming is a one-of-a-kind artform of modern times, and nobody proves this more than the gorgeous Doll_Parts. When you see one of her shows, you'll immediately mark her schedule on your calendar, so you don't miss a second of her great company. She's down to earth and always maintains a friendly disposition to greet the new curious viewer and the long-time fan. She has a special connection with her audience. It is this level of transcendence and constant inspiration that makes her shows so great and Doll_Parts such a unique and fabulous model. We recently got the opportunity to talk to her about her work and she was kind enough to share with us her thoughts and experiences.

MyFreeCams

Whenever you are online, you seem to be having a great time, and you manage to communicate this to your audience in a very smooth way while also inspiring them to get in a good mood themselves. Could you share with us what makes you the happiest about being a cam model?

I love being able to inspire others in all the ways I have over the years in different ways, some just as simple as helping them forget the stresses or pressures of their everyday lives. Others have told me I have inspired them to look at things from a different perspective or to seek further knowledge or understanding for others and themselves in certain aspects of their lives. More than anything, I have always aimed to facilitate an environment in which people can feel welcome and encouraged and that they “belong” I sometimes get all teary eyed when I talk to them about how grateful I am, not only for their coming around and wanting to be there but also for the amazing support and friendships I’ve helped them make with one another. We have had talks together as a group when one of them was nervous about going on a date before, everyone was cheering him on and building him up it was so awesome. We have also had supportive talks when one of them has been going through tough times and wasn’t feeling so great about one thing or another, as well. One of the coolest things I’ve gotten to help to happen was a few years ago, I had two regulars who met in my room. They lived a few states away from one another at the time. When one of them hit some hard luck with his living situation, the other offered a room in his house and they ended up becoming roommates for almost a year until he got back on his feet. I just loved knowing that I had a hand in that, and that someone who was down on his luck got the support he needed in that time because of their becoming friends in my chat. Stuff like that really makes me happy. I’ve also gotten to help with and witness some incredible things that the model community has done to help one another (a lot of which was completely unknown to members) I’ve seen models band together and get a fellow model out of a domestic abuse situation by creating a “chain” of people, one model could pick her up at point A and drive her such and such far to another model who would then drive her another distance and so on in order to get her to the model who had an open room for her to stay in safely. Shit like that makes my heart go all mushy. It inspires me. I try to remind myself of my aim in life and let it bleed through into camming. “I would like my life to be a statement of love and compassion—and where it isn’t, that’s where my work lies.”
